The week of March 2, 1980 Editor: Paul F. Marion

Items for the weekly newsletter should be sent to the Public Relations Office, Cumnock Hall, at least two weeks before the date of an event. Publicity forms are available in the PR Office and newsletters are available at the circulation desks of the Alumni/Lydon and O'Leary Libraries, Student Information Center, and the Public Relations Office. Unless otherwise indicated, events are free and open to the public.

- March 4: MOVIE - The Audio Visual Society presents "Love At First Bite," at 7:30 PM, in Cumnock Hall. Admission is free with a U. Lowell I.D.
- March 5: WIND ORCHESTRA - The University of Lowell Wind Orchestra, led by assistant conductor David Martins, will perform music by Haydn, Mozart, Varese, and Gossens, at 8:00 PM, in Durgin Hall.
- March 5: MOVIE - "Love At First Bite" -- same details as March 4.
- March 6: ARMS RACE & COLD WAR LECTURE - Randall Forsberg will discuss "The Arms Race and the New Cold War," at 10:30 AM, in the Multi-Purpose Room of Alumni/Lydon Library, and at 2:00 PM, in Room 222 of O'Leary Library. Forsberg is an expert in arms control and disarmament, co-author of The Price of Defense, and worked for seven years at the Swedish International Peace Research Institute. The program is sponsored by the Technology and Human Values Program and Sociology Club.
- March 6: FOREIGN FILM FESTIVAL - The series continues with "Viva Italia," an Italian film with English subtitles, at 7:00 PM, in Room 222 of O'Leary Library.
- March 6: BAND CONCERT - The University of Lowell Concert and Symphony Bands along with the Preparatory Division Wind Ensemble and Jazz Band will be in concert at 8:00 PM, in Durgin Hall. Conductors for the evening are Natalo Paella, J. Alan Whiston, and Peter Lancto.
- March 7: KOREAN FILM - The Korean Club of the University of Lowell is sponsoring a Korean Film Festival at 7:30 PM, in the Multi-Purpose Room of Alumni/Lydon Library. The films to be shown are "Romance Gray," a recent edition with English subtitles, and a documentary film on Korean porcelain. A tea party will follow the movies.
- March 7: MIT JAZZ FESTIVAL - The MIT Concert Jazz Band and Festival Jazz Ensemble and the University of Lowell Studio Orchestras will perform at 8:00 PM, in Durgin Hall. Admission is $1.00 at the door.
- March 8: ENERGY SEMINAR - The series ENERGY FOR THE FUTURE continues with a session on Fission and Fusion, at 9:00 AM, in Room 150 of Olney Hall. These programs are sponsored by the University of Lowell Energy Center and division of Continuing Education as a public service to provide a forum for discussing energy alternatives for the future.
